- b. Oppositions to dispositive motions must be filed within 25 days after service of the motion.

8. Pretrial Conference. A pretrial conference will be held on _____ at _____, am/pm

Procedural Provisions

1. Extension of Deadlines

- a. Fact Discovery – Interim Deadlines. The parties may extend any interim deadline for fact discovery by mutual written agreement filed with the court.
- b. Fact Discovery – Final Deadline; Expert Discovery. The parties may extend the deadline for fact discovery or the deadline for expert discovery for a combined total of up to 30 days by mutual written agreement filed with the court.
- c. Dispositive Motions and Pretrial Conference. The parties may not extend the deadline for filing dispositive motions or the date of the final pretrial conference without leave of court. No extension of discovery deadlines shall modify or affect deadlines for filing dispositive motions or the date of the pretrial conference unless the court expressly orders otherwise.

- d. Procedure for Seeking Extension from Court. Motions to extend or modify deadlines will be granted for good cause shown. Good cause may be shown where discovery has been delayed or a deadline otherwise has been affected by the time taken by the court to consider a motion. All motions to extend shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for the request; a summary of discovery, if any, that remains to be taken; and a specific date when the requesting party expects to complete the additional discovery, join other parties, amend the pleadings, or file a motion.
- 2. Motions to Compel or Prevent Discovery. Except for good cause shown, motions to compel discovery, motions for protective orders, motions to quash, motions to strike discovery responses and similar motions must be filed no later than the close of fact discovery or the close of expert discovery, whichever deadline is relevant. If additional discovery is compelled by the court after the relevant deadline has passed, the court may enter such additional orders relating to discovery as may be appropriate.
- 3. Reply Memorandum. Parties need not seek leave of court to file a reply memorandum in response to an opposition to any motion, provided that such a reply memorandum does not exceed twelve pages, double-spaced, and is filed within seven days (excluding intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) after service of the opposition memorandum. Parties may otherwise file reply or surreply memoranda only with leave of court. When such leave is sought, the moving party may file a proposed reply or surreply memorandum with the motion for leave.
- 4. Additional Conferences. Upon request of counsel, or at the court's own initiative, additional case-management or status conferences may be scheduled. Parties may request telephonic conferences where appropriate to avoid undue convenience or expense.
- 5. Early Resolution of Issues. The court recognizes that, in some cases, resolution of one or more preliminary issues may remove a significant impediment to settlement or otherwise expedite resolution of the case. Counsel are encouraged to identify any such issues and to make appropriate motions at an early stage in litigation.
- 6. Pretrial Conference. Lead trial counsel are required to attend any pretrial conference.

By the Court,
